

Sausage Festival in Budapest!

The sausage Festival of Budapest will be organized again during 13-15 October 2017, at the Hungarian Railway Museum. Family programs, folklore shows, nostalgic music programs, presentations and an enormous fair of sausages. On the 10-acre exhibition area a lot of additional programs and well-known performers entertain the audience during the three days.

The capital's largest gastronomic festival, the Sausage Festival in Budapest, will be held for the fourth time. As the capital's Deputy Mayor's wife has mentioned before at one of her welcome speech: "the Pork sausage Festival brings the countryside to Budapest" for a weekend. The main themes of the sausage Festival of Budapest are: "traditions, gastronomy and folklore" On the second weekend of October the Budapest Railway Museum and the adjacent Water Tower Park also will be completely full with tourist attractions. (between the two parks free entrance) The Water Tower Park will be the Country House Street, which at the end will be found the Country House of Békéscsaba furnished with 140-year-old antiques. Here you can taste the world-famous Csabai Sausages. In the yard of the House, the Children Entertaining House and a front of it a Story Telling Theatre. Next to the Country House will be the Petting Zoo, where children can feed the pets with fodder. The Museum is an interactive exhibition of agricultural equipment, visitors can try themselves with the corn crumbs, the pumpkin peeling and grinding. Will be a nostalgic amusement park featuring with a chain swing and a carousel with wooden horses. In front of the paddocks will be the main attraction, the pig slaughtering and meat processing demonstrations of each exhibition day. During the presentations, the butchers will scorch the slaughtered pigs with three grains falling from the 124-year-old working trashing machine, and then cut and processing the meat with traditional instruments, in traditional clothing. The townspeople will be able to see how our grandfathers used to slaughter and process pigs at the countryside. We present every phase of processing, each session lasts as a 4-hour presentation, from the sausage filling all along the way to the bacon frying. 100% tradition keeping, it is the organizer's slogan! Who attends the pig-slaughtering presentation, can taste the organizer own "Pálinka"- the Railwayman Sting Pálinka, as a sign of our hospitality. Pig slaughtering presentation will not be held not just only in the Water Tower Park, but in the big park as well, will be set up a Pig Slaughtering Tent accompanied by a the Slaughtering Merriment. At the Festival for the children is available, free of charge a variety of games to choose from: Folk playground with 30 games, bouncy castle, slide, forge, face painting, archery education and Yurt, where you can dress in clothes of the conquest period, and can test for ancient Hungarians weapons.
